MISCELLANEOUS: Spanish players must have a federative license to participate in this tournament (FEDA regulations). Those players who are not on the list of federated members of the Spanish Chess Federation will not be able to register. This does not affect players from other countries.

There will be up to 3 BYE available to the players (except the invited graduates), they can be requested before the start of the tournament (always in writing). They must be used prior to the seventh round. In the requested round, the player requesting the BYE will not be paired and will be awarded half a point.

For ranking and prize purposes, the ELO FEDA will be valued as ELO FIDE for those players who do not have ELO FIDE.

After the ninth round, the prizes will be awarded.

The final rules of the tournament will be published on our WEB page: www.ajedrezlaroda.com, where you will find the measures dictated by Health and the FACLM at that time.

In each of the rounds, the first 16 games will be broadcast live on the internet.

Players not accredited before 17:30 h. on April 13 will not be paired in the first round.

The closing and awards ceremony will be, approximately, at 20:00 h.

The participants in this tournament authorize the publication of their personal data in the different means of communication that the organization deems appropriate (lists, classifications, games, photos, videos, etc.). The organization reserves the right to cancel a registration, as well as take the appropriate measures to guarantee the smooth running of the tournament.

Participation in this tournament implies acceptance of these rules.
